

Wisdom Part 6

1. God is infinitely wise.
2. All of God's creation is a result of His wisdom.
3. God gives His wisdom to people whom He has created in His image and likeness.
4. God gives His wisdom to those who seek it diligently. The harder we seek it the more He gives.
5. Wisdom is not automatic. We don't get wise by just living. There are a lot of old fools.
6. Wisdom is knowing exactly the best and the right thing to do and to say in any and every situation.
7. Wisdom is the main thing in life.
8. A key to growing wiser is to fully understand how dumb we really are.
9. Wisdom is everywhere, all around us, but it is available only to those who seek it diligently because they know how much they need it.
10. A fool is a person who has a low view of wisdom. They do not realize the value of having wisdom or the consequences of not having it.
11. A fool believes that they know enough to get by. They believe that they know as much as most other people.
12. A naïve person makes little connection between sowing and reaping.
13. A scoffer is a person who when someone tries to teach, reprove or correct them says, "I know".
14. God is not obligated to bail us out of the consequences of bad choices if we have not sought after wisdom with real diligence.
15. The "Fear of the Lord" is the foundation of all Godly wisdom.
16. Those who fear the Lord know that He is not too busy to see, hear and know everything about us.
17. As God watches our behavior and weighs our motives, He responds to our choices as a loving father would.
18. As we grow in wisdom our motivation for doing right grows. It moves from fear of punishment, to hope of reward, to love of God until we want very much to please Him in every detail of our life.
19. Those who seek after wisdom diligently will have a much bigger payday at the Judgment Seat of Christ.
20. The blessings that come into the life of the person who fears the Lord are fantastic.
21. As a parent, teaching our children to fear the Lord is super important.
22. A basic requirement to acquire Godly wisdom is to faithfully read the Bible.
23. God gives all wisdom. He gives it to those who passionately cry out for it in prayer.
24. God gives wisdom to those who are humble enough to seek it diligently from others who will teach them. Wisdom seekers are always learning.
25. A major source of instruction and knowledge is good books. Those who are wisdom seekers are disciplined readers.
26. Wisdom seekers will always be acquiring counsel from wise people.

27. God created heaven and earth as a great source of knowledge about Himself, and also a great source of wisdom if we are diligently looking for it.
28. When we make bad choices in life, reproofs will follow. Reproof will come from others, from life, and from God. Humbly learning from them is a major source of wisdom.
29. A major blessing of wisdom is that we grow in righteousness and holiness.
30. Those who are wise are able to discern the future blessings or consequences of present choices.
31. Wisdom is the foundation of all godly character traits. As we grow in wisdom our character will become more Christ-like.
32. A wise person will know what God's will is for their life.
33. An enjoyable blessing that comes to those who seek wisdom diligently is a growing success in life.
34. Wisdom brings greater financial blessing into our life so that we can help others and help the work of God financially.
35. As we grow in wisdom we grow more careful about our choices, but we also become more confident and decisive in our decision making.
