

Death . . . How Bad is It?

1. Death is not _____. Psalm 116:3.
2. Death automatically _____ your _____.
Ecclesiastes 7:2.
3. Death is the _____ of all _____.
Job 14:14, 30:23.
4. _____ will never be _____ when they
_____. Psalm 49:15; Proverbs 18:24, 14:32; Romans 8:38;
Song of Songs 8:6.
5. _____ don't _____ when a believer dies,
they _____. Psalm 16:15; Revelations 14:13.
6. For a believer, death is _____ than your day of
_____. Ecclesiastes 7:1.
7. God has given us _____ in _____:
 - a. If your _____ sees death as possibility, your _____ goes into _____ so you don't _____ anything.

Spurgeon

A drowning man feels no great pain; the sensations of drowning are even said to be pleasant; it is only when the man is being restored to life, when the blood begins to make the veins tingle because life leaps there, when once again the nerves are sensible, then we are told that the whole body is full of many agonies but then they are the agonies of life.

- b. If your body is doomed to _____, God has given you _____ to put you to _____.

- c. A body goes _____ after a certain amount of _____.
- d. You _____ when your mind starts to _____ of _____ to your body.
- e. There seems to be a _____ when you know you are _____.
- f. Most sensitive _____ endings are on the _____ of your body.

- 7. "To those in Christ, death has no _____, only _____." Jowett Revelation 14:13; Proverbs 14:32.
- 8. For a Believer, death is as _____ as a stingless bee. 1 Corinthians 15:55.
- 9. Your body is nothing but a _____ to your _____, and the earth is _____ to your body.

Thomas Watson

First the infancy dies, then the childhood, then youth, then old age and then finally at death we make an end of dying.

- 10. When death comes to an _____ it takes away his _____, when it comes to a _____ it takes away his _____. Matthew 7:22-23; Isaiah 57:2.