

Praying Against Evil
Romans 12:19-21

1. The disciple of Jesus is commanded to bless our enemies.
  - a. _____ Matthew 5:43, 44; Luke 6:27, 28; Proverbs 24:17
  - b. _____ 1 Peter 3:9; Luke 6:27, 28; Romans 12:14.
  - c. _____ Luke 23: 34; Acts 7:60; Romans 12:20
  - d. _____ Romans 12: 20
2. The disciple of Jesus is commanded to _____ against _____. Ephesians 6:12, 18, 19
  - a. For _____ in heaven. Proverbs 25:21, 22; Matthew 5:12
  - b. In obedience to _____. Romans 12:2
  - c. Because it may motivate your enemy to _____. Acts 16:25-31
  - d. Because _____ belongs to God. Romans 12:19b; Deut. 32:35
  - e. In so doing you will heap burning coals upon his head.
Romans 12:20b; Proverbs 25:22
3. Should the Christian desire God's vengeance upon his enemies? Psalm 139:19- 22.
4. The Golden _____
  - a. Praying the scriptures against evil as an acknowledgement of the _____ of God.
  - b. Praying the scriptures is an expression of _____.
  - c. Praying the scriptures against evil is to have confidence in God's ultimate _____.
  - d. Praying the scriptures is to have a relevant and active role against the _____ that permeates our world.
  - e. Loving, serving and blessing my enemies is a triumph of obedience over my sense of _____.