

Defending Your Faith Pt.6

Question: Why would a loving God send people to hell?

An allegedly omnipotent, omniscient, benevolent God has seemingly freely chosen to sentence most human beings to hell. Why? Should such a God (if he exists) be trusted? Luke 16:19-31.

Things to know:

1. God did not _____ the rich man to Hell. God _____ the rich man have what he _____.
Luke 16:19; Romans 1:21-32.

2. The rich man's _____ was the rich man's _____.
Luke 16:20-21; 1 Kings 14:11, 21:19, 23.

3. When the rich man _____, He lost his _____.
Luke 16:19-28.

4. In Hell, the rich man _____ to get _____.
Luke 16:24; Revelation 16:8-11.

5. In Hell the rich man is being _____ his sin, _____ his sin, and _____ of his sin since he refused to accept _____ his sin.
Luke 16:24.
 - a. Judged _____ sin. _____ to his sin. Revelation 22:11.

 - b. Judged _____ sin. _____ the _____ for his sin. John 19:11; Matthew 11:21-22; Hebrews 10:29.

 - c. Judged _____ of sin. All _____ of God's _____. Matthew 25:41.

6. In Hell, Abraham _____ the rich man with _____.
Luke 16:25; 2 Peter 3:9.

7. In Hell, the rich man _____ to his
_____. Luke 16:27-31.

8. Understanding that Christ did not come to earth to _____ judgment for sin (Hell), but to _____ judgment for sin (Hell), is the only way a person will have the desire to _____
_____ of their sin (Hell). Isaiah 53:4-5.

Questions to ask:

1. What do you think Hell looks like?

(Hell looks like sin full-grown with God's grace fully removed.)

2. Does the Bible teach that Hell was made for people?

(No, it was made for the devil and his angels.)

3. Does the Bible teach that God sends people to Hell?

(No, He just doesn't force anyone to go to heaven.)

4. The Bible teaches that no one has to go to Hell. Why do you blame God for Hell?

Genesis 3:11-12.