

1 & 2 Thessalonians - Part 2
1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

1. The _____ is the inspired, _____ of God.
2 Timothy 3:16; 2 Samuel 23:2; 2 Peter 1:19-21.

2. The Bible reveals the _____ of God, the _____ of life, the _____ of God, and the attributes and nature of God.
Psalm 19:7-11, 119:97-104.

3. Some _____ of the Bible are more _____ to our life than others. Deuteronomy 21:18-21; Leviticus 1:5; Genesis 26:5.

4. The Epistles of Paul to the churches are a _____ of the Bible that is very _____ to us _____.
1 Thessalonians 1:1; 1 Corinthians 1:2.

5. The authors of the various books of the Bible who wrote the “_____” of God were _____ by amazing _____ from God.
Numbers 20:11, 16:28-32; Acts 5:15-16, 19:11-12.

6. Many of those who wrote books of the Bible _____ the _____ directly from God in an _____ with God. Exodus 24:4, 12; Numbers 12:7-8; Ezekiel 1:26-28; Isaiah 6:1; Daniel 7:9; Revelation 4:1-2.

7. The apostle Paul was _____ by God, had incredible _____ with God, he had supernatural power from God, and what he wrote was _____ to be the very Word of God. Acts 26:13-16; 2 Corinthians 12:2; Galatians 1:11-12, 15-18; Ephesians 3:1-4.

8. Those who _____ God and His _____ in the Word and are committed to _____ it will understand it. Proverbs 28:5; Psalm 25:14; John 7:17; 1 Corinthians 2:14.

9. _____ the Bible every _____, and _____ to it taught often. Psalm 1:2-3; Joshua 1:8; Deuteronomy 17:19; Psalm 119:2, 9-11.