

1 & 2 Thessalonians - Part 8

1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

1. Man likes to _____ God, but God is God; He us, and we need to _____ who He is. Isaiah 46:9-10.

2. God is _____. Isaiah 6:3.

3. God _____, and expresses great _____ towards it.

2 Kings 22:17; Ezekiel 21:3; Psalm 21:9; Ezek. 22:20-22, 31, 30:15; Nahum 1:2-6.

4. There is coming a “day” or period of _____ on the entire world that will last _____ called the Great

_____.

Ezekiel 7:19; Zephaniah 1:15-18; Romans 2:5; Revelation 15:1, 16:1-11.

5. Jesus, God’s Son, left heaven, became a man, lived a perfect life, as a perfect man took all of our sin on Himself, then God out His _____ against _____ on His Son.

1 Peter 2:24; Isaiah 53:4-5; Psalm 88:4-7.

6. Any person who truly _____ the Gospel and _____ in Jesus as his Savior is forgiven and _____ from the _____ of God. 1 Thessalonians 1:10; Romans 5:9; 1 Thessalonians 5:9-10.

7. Those who do _____ Christ as their Savior will experience the _____ of God. John 3:36.

8. The _____ is that event where we literally _____ the coming _____ of God.
1 Thessalonians 1:10, 4:14-18; 1 Corinthians 15:51-54.

9. The _____ of Jesus is _____, and believers since the beginning of the church have _____ on it as their source of hope, security, and joy. Hebrews 10:37; 1 Peter 4:7.

10. Jesus instructed us to be _____ about His coming,
_____ His coming, and to look for the _____
of His coming. Matthew 24:32-34, Psalm 90:10; Matthew 24: 6-12.

11. Focusing on the _____ of Jesus is designed by God to cause us to grow in character and holiness
_____.
2 Peter 3:11-14.

12. As believers waiting for the soon coming of Jesus we ought not to _____ like those who have no _____, or to life, trials, death, cancer like those who have no _____.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, 5:9-11.

13. It is God's intent that having a Biblical understanding of the of God and the coming of Jesus would _____ us to be a faithful, bold, aggressive, gracious, and strategic _____ for Jesus.

2 Peter 3:9.