

Questions About Marriage

1. My wife had an _____, what do I do? Psalm 34:18.

- Seek counsel
- Seek reconciliation
- Seek to understand if the affair is a perpetual behavior or a one-time act.
- Work towards the ultimate goal, “trusting again”.
-

2. I am married to a man who is addicted to _____. Our sex life consists of me performing like the pornographic images he views. What do I do? Proverbs 5:22-23.

- Understand that if sex from your mate hurts you emotionally, physically, spiritually, or physiologically then you will suffer as if abused.
- Set your boundaries and demand they are respected.
- Fight the addiction by any way you believe would be effective.

3. I am married to a man who physically _____ me and the kids. What do I do? Can I divorce? Matthew 18:6.

- Get out.
- Work with authorities.
- Find people in the church to walk with.

4. I am no longer _____ with my mate and I feel like we are no longer compatible. What do I do?

- Don't even think of divorcing.
- The Bible doesn't tell you to be compatible. It tells you to love
- Love is a goal to go after not an expectation to be felt. Set goals.

5. I am married to a woman that _____ in God. Should I divorce? No! 1 Corinthians 7:12-15

6. I am _____ someone who does not believe in God. Can I get married? 2 Corinthians 6:14.

7. I committed adultery in the past do I need to _____ it to my spouse? Hebrews 13:4.

8. I have a _____ with pornography do I tell my wife? James 5:16.

9. How do I _____ my kids to find the _____ mate? Proverbs 22:6.