Contentment

Part 6

1. One of God's $\qquad$ for us as His $\qquad$ is that we would $\qquad$ in contentment. 2 Corinthians 12:7-10; 1 Timothy 6:6-8; Hebrews 13:5; Luke 12:15.
2. Contentment is $\qquad$ that we have everything that we $\qquad$ for our present $\qquad$ .
3. Contentment is a $\qquad$ . Philippians 4:11-12.
4. Learning to live life with an attitude of contentment will be a great $\qquad$ because of our $\qquad$ , our
$\qquad$ and the devil. Genesis 3:1-5.
5. The fist step to practicing contentment is to $\qquad$ on the fact that $\qquad$ comes from $\qquad$ . Psalm 16:11.
6. The second step is to diligently seek and want the right things. We need to be very $\qquad$ with our present relationship with God, with our level of $\qquad$ , and with what we have $\qquad$ with our life for God.
7. The third step to genuine contentment in our life is to fix our $\qquad$ on God and His $\qquad$ to us, especially the promise of $\qquad$ . Jeremiah 29:11; Hebrews 6:18-20.
8. The fourth step to acquiring the character trait of contentment is to $\qquad$ the $\qquad$ of being a $\qquad$ person.
9. Most people are $\qquad$ , even $\qquad$ .
10. Our natural $\qquad$ to see the $\qquad$ in people and situations is a major cause for our being $\qquad$ in life.
11. It is very easy for us to $\qquad$ the $\qquad$ in life. It takes $\qquad$ to look for the $\qquad$ .
12. The discipline of looking for and $\qquad$ God for all of the [^0]
[^0]:    He has given us in life will $\qquad$ the bad situations and experiences. Psalm 9:1, 28:7, 50:14, 23, 100:4, 106:1, 119:62; Ephesians 5:20; 1 Thessalonians 5:18.

