

Pleasing God Part 5

1. It is not _____ we do, but _____ we do it that is most important; our _____. 1 Corinthians 4:5.

2. The two basic, foundational _____ in life are the desire to _____ and the desire to _____.

3. When our motive is to please God we will become increasingly more _____ in what we do, but when it is to please people we will become increasingly more _____.

4. We can _____ who _____ us. We can _____ to work at _____ God or people. 2 Corinthians 5:9.

5. We want to _____ ourselves to be _____ to the _____ of God rather than the _____ of men.

6. God _____ His _____ to us. Matthew 3:17.

7. God will often communicate His pleasure to us _____ a _____ who will _____ us. 1 Samuel 2:30, 18:30, 23:16; Proverbs 27:2, 31:28-31; Romans 16:1-7.

8. We must _____ to respond to _____ from people correctly, or we will become _____ to the wrong source. Proverbs 27:21.

9. When someone praises or thanks you for something you did, say, "_____, I _____ that very much." Don't _____ praise.

10. _____ yourself to see God _____ to you _____ the person. They are the _____, He is the _____.

11. As you become effective at receiving _____ from God _____ people, He will _____ you more and more.

12. It is a basic _____ that _____ is incredibly _____ in our life.

13. We need to work at being an _____ of God and _____ a lot whenever we see them being faithful and _____ God. 1 Thessalonians 5:11-13.

14. Those who are _____ and _____ in nature are not used by God to _____ others. 1 Corinthians 4:5; Matthew 7:1-5; Romans 2:1, 14:3-4.