

Bitterness

1. _____ is probably the _____ a Christian can commit because of the _____ they will experience in their own life as a result. Hebrews 12:15.
2. _____ is taking _____ at the unkind, rude, inconsiderate, selfish, immature words and actions of others and then not _____ them _____.
3. Our initial _____ to the words, attitudes and actions of others is _____; we can't control them.
4. The things we think, the words we say, and the things we do after the initial _____ are our _____ and we are held _____ for them. Matthew 12:36.
5. God _____ us, not because we _____ it, but because of His _____.
Psalm 103:1; Isaiah 38:17, 43:25; Hebrews 8:12; Isaiah 44:22; Psalm 103:12; 1 John 1:9.
6. God _____ that because He has _____ that we will _____.
Ephesians 4:32; Colossians 3:12-13.

7. We are able to have an intimate relationship with God, sense His _____, experience His _____, and know His perfect _____ for our lives because He _____ us of all our _____. Psalm 51:1-12.

8. If we do not _____ of their sins, then _____ will not _____ us of our _____, and all the blessings of God's _____ us are _____. Matthew 6:14-15.

9. If we don't forgive _____, _____ won't forgive _____ and He will not _____ our _____. Mark 11:25-26.

10. If we don't forgive others, God won't forgive us and we will _____, _____, and _____. Psalm 32:1-4.

11. If we don't _____, God won't _____ us and the _____ will have open _____ to our lives. Matthew 18:21-35.

12. If we don't _____, God won't _____ and we will _____ from God, sooner or later. Matthew 24:10; 1 Timothy 4:1.